Biographical Sketch.

Marietta H. Madden was born on June 27, 1907 and died on January 27, 1997. She was a graduate of Rahway High School, Rahway, New Jersey (1925) and received her nursing diploma from Long Island College Hospital, School of Nursing(1928). In 1950, Madden obtained a bachelor of science in nursing (1950) and a master's degree in science (1951) from School of Education, University of Pennsylvania.

Her nursing career began at Long Island College Hospital, Long Island, New York in a supervisory position (1928-1934). Later she accepted a clinical instructor and administrative position(1934-1938) at St John's Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y. .In May, 1938 she became clinical instructor and administrative supervisor at Mount Sinai Hospital, Philadelphia, PA . and remained until Madden enlisted in the U.S. Army, Nurse Corps (1943). During World War II, served with the 79th General Hospital in France. She remained in the Active Reserve Army Nurse Corps . Following the war was chief nurse with the 361th General Hospital for sixteen years before retiring as a lieutenant colonel(1967).

During her active reserve army nurse status Madden worked in various civilian hospitals in the Philadelphia, PA area. She held a position as a school nurse, and another as inspector of nursing homes for the Pennsylvania Department of Health. Her last position was Director of Nurses, Graduate Hospital, University of Pennsylvania, where in less than a year she reorganized the nursing department to improve patient care services . Upon her retirement (1971), Madden become active in volunteer activities, such as, a friendly visitor at Winced Home and a consultant to the Montgomery County Office on Aging. On January 29, 1997 she was buried with full military honors at Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Virginia.

Summary. Despite its small size, this collection documents Madden's active and reserve duty in the U.S. Army Nurse Corps, as well as volunteer actives with the Montgomery County Office of The Aging, especially Eastern Montgomery County Consortium and North Penn Long Care Consortium. There are files documenting her activities at the University of Washington,(Seattle, Washington)with developing Health Service Criteria And Standards for The Aging. Artifacts such as her Long Island College Hospital, School of Nursing cap and pin are included in this collection.
