33rd Annual Tri-State Consortium Brunch

Richard Ricciardi, PhD, NP, FAANP, FAAN, is a Professor at The George Washington University School of Nursing. Ric served as the Director, Division of Practice Improvement and the Senior Advisor for Nursing at the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ). At AHRQ, Ric's research focused on ambulatory care practice improvements in the areas of teams, team-based care, outcomes measurement, treatment of acute and chronic pain, and improving patient safety practices. Prior to joining AHRQ in 2010, Ric served on active duty in the Army for 30 years and had numerous positions as a pediatric and family nurse practitioner, clinical scientist, and senior leader. In his last two positions on active duty, he served as chief of nursing research at Walter Reed Army Medical Center and director of research at the Defense Centers of Excellence for Psychological Health and Traumatic Brain Injury. Ric maintains a part-time nurse practitioner practice at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center.

He is honored to be elected as president-elect of Sigma and is excited to serve all members of Sigma over this biennium.
